

Rustic Table Privacy & Cookies Policy

Data we gather

We are committed to safeguarding your privacy and only collect the minimum of personal details (such as your name, email address, telephone number) from our Reservation and Enquiry Forms. Any details you provide to us are only used for securing your table reservation and to allow us to confirm your booking or update you on the booking status or dealing with your enquiry.

COVID 19 Track and Trace rules mean we currently need to keep your contact details for longer than we normally would, however we do not retain your personal data for longer than needed.

We do not share your Personal Data with others unless legally obliged to do so.

We will do our best to ensure the accuracy, the integrity and confidentiality of the data you give us. We do our best to keep your Personal Data safe. We monitor our systems for possible vulnerabilities and attacks.

Even though we try our best we cannot guarantee the security of information. However, we promise to notify suitable authorities of data breaches. We will also notify you if there is a threat to your rights or interests. We will do everything we reasonably can to prevent security breaches and to assist authorities should any breaches occur.

Contact us at if you have any questions or problems regarding the use of your Personal Data and we will gladly assist you.

By using our website and/or our services, you consent to the Processing of your Personal Data as described in this Privacy Policy.

Children

We do not intend to collect or knowingly collect information from children. We do not target children with our services.

Cookie Policy

A cookie is a tiny text file stored on your computer. Cookies store information that is used to help make sites work. We use Analytics cookies to track the use and performance of our website. For this purpose we use Google Analytics to measure traffic on our website and to analyse customer behaviour and track users' movements (which pages they visit, which ones they don't visit etc.).

This is done to help improve our website. Google has their own Privacy Policy which you can review here. You can control your cookies at the browser level. If you'd like to opt out of tracking by Google Analytics, visit the Google Analytics opt-out page.

You can remove cookies stored in your computer via your browser settings. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better. However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser. We suggest consulting the Help section of your browser or taking a look at the About Cookies website which offers guidance for all modern browsers.

Changes to this Privacy & Cookie Policy
